

Animal Placement

The Gaston County Animal Control Division is responsible for the disposition of thousands of wild, stray and unwanted animals each year. Through the help of citizen, volunteer and Placement Partner efforts, Animal Control staff is excited about increasing the number of animals being returned to owners, rescued and adopted, and is committed to continuing this trend in animal placement. Below of is a chart showing placement trends.

